Medical Illness Policy

One of the advantages of boarding your pet with us is that medical attention is readily available should your pet(s) become ill. If an emergency or illness were to arise concerning your pet, we would attempt to contact the emergency contact person listed below regarding your pet's specific symptoms and treatment options. If no one can be reached, we will proceed with medical diagnosis, treatment, and/or immediate relief of discomfort, based on your wishes as follows. Please check one of these options:

____ Please perform whatever services the doctor deems necessary for the health and comfort of my pet until someone can be reached.

____ I authorize (check one) ____ $100.00 ____ $250.00 ____ other $ _____

____ Please do not administer any medical treatment until specific authorization has been given. (NOTE: basic first aid and pain relief will be administered as required.)

I fully intend to pick up my pet(s) on the date indicated below. Should I fail to do so within 5 days of that date, I understand that the pet(s) may be considered abandoned and measures will be taken to find a new home for my pet(s). Should the date of pick up need to be altered, I understand that it is my responsibility to inform Bradley Animal Hospital of that change, and I am responsible for any and all additional charges incurred.

It is the policy of Bradley Animal Hospital to treat any animal found to have parasites (fleas or intestinal worms) at the owner's expense.

I understand the risks associated with and hereby give permission for Bradley Animal Hospital to leash walk my dog outdoors. In so doing, I also release them from any responsibility or liability.

In the event your pet has GI upset (diarrhea) while boarding, the doctor will perform a physical exam at no charge and check a fecal cytology for bacteria. The cytology and any needed medication will be at the owner's expense.
